May: Fifth Step and Fifth Tradition

Fifth Step: “Admitted to God, to ourselves, and to another human being the exact nature of our wrongs”.

Fifth Tradition: “Each group has but one primary purpose, to carry its message to the alcoholic who still suffers”.

Quote for Reflection:

“Avoiding your triggers isn’t healing. Healing happens when you are triggered and you are able to move through the pain, the pattern, and your story – and walk your way to a different ending”.

MEMBER’S CORNER

You can help make our newsletter fresh, fun and interesting! I invite you to share a personal story, your art, a poem, a song, tell us about a challenge you overcame, a great meeting you went to – something that brings inspiration to your recovery.

SPIRITUALLY WOKE
Submitted by Kristin F.

Hey there God
Yes, it’s me
The one who never thought
She could truly believe
Well, I’m here to say
I finally see
You were there all along
Helping to carry me
To guide me on this path
Holding my hand
The whole way
To see through the fog
Keep the demons at bay
You’ve given me strength to show up
Even when I wanted to give in
You never let me down
Or let the disease win
This is something I know now
I couldn’t have done on my own
And thanks to you and my village
I’ll never ever have to do it alone
The Fourth Step Inventory Process:

I Got it Right the Second Time

Submitted by Rick R.

My first attempt at doing a fourth step inventory came as I was approaching my first year of sobriety. I now realize that I was rushing into it before I understood what the objective was and after scribbling down a great number of superficial deeds that I had done during my drinking days, my project was abruptly interrupted by a flight to Asia and a four-month vacation aboard a Navy tanker in the Tonkin Gulf Yacht Club, (being in the Navy at the time.) I didn’t have the opportunity to get to a single meeting during that time, but I did have a lot of quiet nights at sea where I contemplated my life before Alcoholics Anonymous (A.A.), and what I was going to do with the rest of my life. It was during that time that I decided, By God; I wasn’t going to mess this thing up.

I was going to do it by the book. I longed to be back in the safety of that very loving group that I left four months earlier. I knew that with their love and support I could get it right, I realized, as I was studying steps six it says, “We were entirely ready to have God remove all these defects of character” and in step seven, it says “Humbly ask him to remove our shortcomings”. To me that means, in Step Four, I should be trying to identify my defects of character and my Shortcomings.

The example of this step in the Big Book (Alcoholics Anonymous) shows a chart which describes, what we did, why we did it, (fear of something) and who we did it to. It occurred to me that if I could identify the root cause of my problems (defects/fears) that I could change the behavior that resulted from those actions. (shortcomings).
To explain this in simple terms, I produced this scenario that anyone could understand, and it goes like this:

I purchased a large S.U.V. off the showroom floor, drove away and, at the first signal light, I hit the brakes and it didn’t stop till I was out into the cross traffic. I drove back to the dealer and explained what happened. They checked it out and discovered that they had put the wrong brake shoes on it by mistake, they replaced them with to the correct brakes and when I came to the signal light the S.U.V. stopped, and it stopped at all the other stop lights as well. The defect (root cause) was that the brakes were the wrong size. The shortcoming (behavior) was that the vehicle did not stop properly. Once the defect was corrected, the shortcoming went away.

For example, I was talking to one of my mentors, at that time, about criticizing other people and he said that the criticism of others stems from my own, low self-esteem (defect) it occurred to me that, with a little self-restraint, I could slowly refrain from that behavior. Once I identify my defects of character, it seems to take all the power out of them, for instance, if I could find any value in criticizing another person, I might still be doing it but there is no value in it except to feed my ego and it shows weakness of character. (Low self-esteem)

I used that template on all the behaviors, that I’m not proud of, and I feel stronger for it. That four months at sea gave me gave me the motivation to re-visit the fourth step and get it right the second time around and I highly recommend the revisiting that step if you feel troubled by old behaviors. It did wonders for me.
